

Elevating Your BUSINESS

Economy-Proof Your Business

With a Business & Marketing Plan on One Page

Gone are the days of creating a plan that does nothing for your company except collect dust on the shelf. The secret is out! Now you can learn how to write a clear, concise, and understandable plan, too. More than 250,000 CEOs, presidents, executive directors, executives, and the best managers across the globe use it. And guess what -- Oprah uses it too!

The One Page Business Plan® is a business and marketing plan system that you will use daily to help you run a well-oiled business, department, or company. The process links five very important business-building concepts: brainstorming, planning, execution, accountability and results.

In this best practices briefing, you will:

- ✓ Discover a 5-part comprehensive planning process that provides focus, focus, focus on what's important, and helps set daily priorities.
- ✓ Learn the 5 simple questions every business and marketing plan needs to answer to get focused, earn more, and be more productive.
- ✓ Take home a draft of your business vision statement.
